

What Kate Hates

Nate was making chocolates. He wanted to make them in fun shapes. He was going to share them with his classmates. Nate melted some chocolate. He poured it into molds. He let the chocolates cool. Then, he put one next to its mate on a plate. Two stars, two moons, and so on. Nate was in a hungry state. He ate a few. Yum! Nate was running late. He would skate to school. He skated to school carrying the plate. Nate even skated over a grate and did not drop the plate. He opened the school gate. He went into his classroom. Nate put down the plate. Everyone ate and ate. Everyone except Kate. Kate hates chocolate. Nate brought Kate a fresh sweet date to eat instead of chocolate.
