

The Farmer and the Painter

Mae's dad is a farmer. He is a painter too. He is a farmer during the day. He is a painter in the late afternoons and evenings. He loves to be both a farmer and a painter. He gets to do both things that he loves. Mae's dad paints pictures of his farming life. One was of his tractor. Another was of his barn. I think it is wonderful to be a farmer and a painter. He is the only person I know who both farms and paints.
